concussions, stroke and epilepsy among many other neurological conditions. The donation of $1,000 will help the annual walk raise funds to support NJCTS's School In-service Program which trains teachers and nurses at schools in every corner of the state, as well as conducting peer trainings and anti-bullying sessions on behalf of New Jersey kids with Tourette Syndrome.

“We are proud to return as sponsor of the New Jersey Walks event at Mendham, said Dr. Roger Kurlan, Director of the Movement Disorders Program. He continued, “We're committed to the health of our neighbors in the Tourette Syndrome community.”

Atlantic Health Neuroscience Institute is made of experts in adult and pediatric neurology, neurosurgery, neuroradiology and related fields to deliver world-class medical care in state-of-the-art facilities, including a neuroscience inpatient unit and specialty programs and centers.

“We are pleased to continue our work together on behalf of New Jersey’s kids,” said NJCTS Executive Director Faith W. Rice. “Atlantic Neuroscience Institute's support helps make this such a special and successful event.”
