Thank You Parents!

On Saturday, more than 50 parents joined us for our first TS Parent Virtual Global Summit. Discussions included best practices for communicating with your child's care team and how to help your child transition through life stages.

A special thank you to our NJCTS family facilitators who generously shared their time and advice with others.

We look forward to bringing you more unique content like the Parent Summit and the Teen Summit in the future!

On the Blog: How TS Turns Everyday Tasks Into Challenges

Having Tourette's didn't hinder my life to an extreme degree, however, that's not to say that it didn't impact my life to any extent at all.
